FINDING

There being a finding/verdict of GUILTY, defendant has been convicted as charged of the offense(s) of:

Introducing Misbranded Drugs into Interstate Commerce, Causing an Act to be Done in violation of 21 U.S.C. §§ 331(a), 352 and 333(a)(2), and 18 U.S.C. § 2(a) as charged in Counts 2 and 3 of the 3-Count Information

JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, RNG Global Management and Trading Group Inc., is hereby placed on probation on Counts Two and Three of the Information for a term of five years. This term consists of five years on each of Counts Two and Three of the Information, all such terms to run concurrently under the following terms and conditions:

1. During the period of community supervision, the defendant organization shall pay the special assessment and fine in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.
2. The defendant organization shall not commit another federal, state or local crime.
3. The defendant organization shall provide the Probation Officer access to any requested financial information.
4. Within 30 days from the date of this judgment, the defendant organization shall designate an official of the organization to act as the organization's representative and to be the primary contact with the Probation Officer.
5. The defendant organization shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the Probation Officer and follow the instructions of the Probation Officer.
6. The defendant organization shall notify the Probation Officer ten days prior to any change in the principal business or mailing address or within 72 hours if advance notice is not possible.
7. The defendant organization shall permit a Probation Officer to visit the organization at any of its operating business sites.

8. The defendant organization shall report to the Probation Officer as directed and shall submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month.
9. The defendant organization shall be required to notify the Court or Probation Officer immediately upon learning of (A) any material adverse change in its business or financial condition or prospects, or (B) the commencement of any bankruptcy proceeding, major civil litigation, criminal prosecution, or administrative proceeding against the organization, or any investigation or formal inquiry by government authorities regarding the organization.
10. The defendant organization shall notify the Probation Officer immediately of any intent to sell the organization, change the name of the organization, merge with another business entity, or otherwise dissolve and/or modify, in any form or manner, the organizational structure from its present status.
11. The defendant organization shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds to the outstanding Court-ordered financial obligation. In addition, the defendant organization shall apply all monies received from lottery winnings, inheritance, judgments and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding Court-ordered financial obligation.
12. If the defendant organization changes its name, or merges with another company through a stock or assets purchase, or sells or transfers all or substantially all of its business operations as they exist as of the date of conviction, the renamed, newly-created, transferred, sold, or merged company shall be obliged to meet all of the obligations of defendant organization in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to payment of the fine and special assessment and creation and implementation of an effective anti-money laundering program. The defendant organization shall include in any contract for sale, merger, or transfer a provision fully binding the purchaser(s) or any successor(s) in interest thereto the obligations described in the Court-ordered conditions of probation.
13. The defendant organization shall not engage in any business services involving the purchase, sale, or distribution of prescription drugs without the express approval of the Probation Officer prior to engagement in such services. Further, the defendant organization shall provide the Probation Officer with access to any and all business records, client lists and other records pertaining to the operation of RNG Global Management and Trading Group Inc., as directed by the Probation Officer.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $800, which is due immediately.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a total fine of $24,000, consisting of the following: Count Two, a fine of $12,000; Count Three, a fine of $12,000. The total fine shall bear interest as provided by law.

The fine shall be paid in monthly installments of at least $500 during the term of probation. These payments shall begin 30 days after full payment of the fine imposed on co-defendant Jin Su Park (Docket No. 0973 2:19CR00067-2).

On Government's motion, the underlying Indictment /all remaining counts are ORDERED dismissed.

Defendant advised of his right to appeal.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.

The defendant must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below).

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF PROBATION AND SUPERVISED RELEASE

While the defendant is on probation or supervised release pursuant to this judgment:

1. The defendant must not commit another federal, state, or local crime;
2. The defendant must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district of residence within 72 hours of imposition of a sentence of probation or release from imprisonment, unless otherwise directed by the probation officer;
3. The defendant must report to the probation office as instructed by the court or probation officer;
4. The defendant must not knowingly leave the judicial district without first receiving the permission of the court or probation officer;
5. The defendant must answer truthfully the inquiries of the probation officer, unless legitimately asserting his or her Fifth Amendment right against self-incrimination as to new criminal conduct;
6. The defendant must reside at a location approved by the probation officer and must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before any anticipated change or within 72 hours of an unanticipated change in residence or persons living in defendant's residence;
7. The defendant must permit the probation officer to contact him or her at any time at home or elsewhere and must permit confiscation of any contraband prohibited by law or the terms of supervision and observed in plain view by the probation officer;
8. The defendant must work at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons and must notify the probation officer at least ten days before any change in employment or within 72 hours of an unanticipated change;
9. The defendant must not knowingly associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity and must not knowingly associate with any person convicted of a felony unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer. This condition will not apply to intimate family members, unless the court has completed an individualized review and has determined that the restriction is necessary for protection of the community or rehabilitation;
10. The defendant must refrain from excessive use of alcohol and must not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer any narcotic or other controlled substance, or any paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician;
11. The defendant must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer;
12. For felony cases, the defendant must not possess a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or any other dangerous weapon;
13. The defendant must not act or enter into any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as an informant or source without the permission of the court;
14. As directed by the probation officer, the defendant must notify specific persons and organizations of specific risks posed by the defendant to those persons and organizations and must permit the probation officer to confirm the defendant's compliance with such requirement and to make such notifications;
15. The defendant must follow the instructions of the probation officer to implement the orders of the court, afford adequate deterrence from criminal conduct, protect the public from further crimes of the defendant; and provide the defendant with needed educational or vocational training, medical care, or other correctional treatment in the most effective manner.

☒ The defendant must also comply with the following special conditions (set forth below).

STATUTORY PROVISIONS PERTAINING TO PAYMENT AND COLLECTION OF FINANCIAL SANCTIONS

The defendant must pay interest on a fine or restitution of more than $2,500, unless the court waives interest or unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth (15th) day after the date of the judgment under 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f)(1). Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency under 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g). Interest and penalties pertaining to restitution, however, are not applicable for offenses completed before April 24, 1996.

If all or any portion of a fine or restitution ordered remains unpaid after the termination of supervision, the defendant must pay the balance as directed by the United States Attorney's Office. 18 U.S.C. § 3613.

The defendant must notify the United States Attorney within thirty (30) days of any change in the defendant's mailing address or residence address until all fines, restitution, costs, and special assessments are paid in full. 18 U.S.C. § 3612(b)(1)(F).

The defendant must notify the Court (through the Probation Office) and the United States Attorney of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay a fine or restitution, as required by 18 U.S.C. § 3664(k). The Court may also accept such notification from the government or the victim, and may, on its own motion or that of a party or the victim, adjust the manner of payment of a fine or restitution under 18 U.S.C. § 3664(k). See also 18 U.S.C. § 3572(d)(3) and for probation 18 U.S.C. § 3563(a)(7).

Payments will be applied in the following order:

1. Special assessments under 18 U.S.C. § 3013;
2. Restitution, in this sequence (under 18 U.S.C. § 3664(i), all non-federal victims must be paid before the United States is paid):
 - Non-federal victims (individual and corporate),
 - Providers of compensation to non-federal victims,
 - The United States as victim;
3. Fine;
4. Community restitution, under 18 U.S.C. § 3663(c); and
5. Other penalties and costs.

CONDITIONS OF PROBATION AND SUPERVISED RELEASE PERTAINING TO FINANCIAL SANCTIONS

As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant must provide to the Probation Officer: (1) a signed release authorizing credit report inquiries; (2) federal and state income tax returns or a signed release authorizing their disclosure and (3) an accurate financial statement, with supporting documentation as to all assets, income and expenses of the defendant. In addition, the defendant must not apply for any loan or open any line of credit without prior approval of the Probation Officer.

The defendant must maintain one personal checking account. All of defendant's income, "monetary gains," or other pecuniary proceeds must be deposited into this account, which must be used for payment of all personal expenses. Records of all other bank accounts, including any business accounts, must be disclosed to the Probation Officer upon request.

The defendant must not transfer, sell, give away, or otherwise convey any asset with a fair market value in excess of $500 without approval of the Probation Officer until all financial obligations imposed by the Court have been satisfied in full.

These conditions are in addition to any other conditions imposed by this judgment.
